

Villa Aurora presents

Burghart Klaussner & Band

Transatlantic Musical Encounters

The Familiar and the Unknown
- Homeland and Exile.

A musical interpretation of works by Hanns Eisler, Kurt Weill, Cole Porter, Tom Waits, Charles Trenet, and others .

The members of the band:

Musical director, piano, trumpet, accordion: Jan-Peter Klöpfel

Bass: Gerold Donker

Saxophone, clarinet, flute: Edgar Herzog

Guitar: Sven Arne Schöнемann

Vocals: Burghart Klaussner

8:00 pm | Villa Aurora

04/14/11

Burghart Klaussner, one of Germany's most renowned actors (The White Ribbon) and his band invite you to share their fascination for the songs and chansons from the period of exile to the present.

Admission $5 Members, $10 Non-Members,
RSVP to 310-573-3603 or info@villa-aurora.org

Shuttle service begins at 7:00 pm from street parking on Los Liones Drive, off Sunset Boulevard, two blocks N/E of Pacific Coast Highway.

A live webstream of the event will be provided.

In cooperation with the Goethe Instituts
Los Angeles and San Francisco

Artists Residence
Villa Aurora • 520 Paseo Miramar

Historic Landmark
Pacific Palisades • CA 90272

Villa Aurora, historic émigré refuge, offers residency grants and salon style arts & cultural programs.

310-454-4231 • 573-3601 Fax • info@villa-aurora.org

Special Thanks to our Sponsors

Federal Foreign Office

Federal Government Commissioner for Culture and the Media

Thierry Leduc